Kay's Quilts

#1001 Wild Waves

Size: 42" x 42"

$ 175.00

This Nancy Mahoney design was paper pieced in block sections using batiks scraps in shades of blue, aqua and green. The borders of green and blue batiks also frame the center to make it pop. This looks beautiful hanging on a wall as an accent to the blues and grey of my home.

#1002 Are We There Yet?

Size: 42" x 42"

$ 250.00

The abstract flying geese in many bright colors seem to be getting nowhere in this contemporary wall hanging. The detail photo show the intricate free motion designs heavily stitched throughout the quilt. The design is by Jenny Pedigo, Helen Robinson and Sherilyn Mortensen for Sew Kind of Wonderful.

#1003 Color Love

Size: 46" x 46"

$ 150.00

This contemporary design is by Jenny Pedigo, Helen Robinson and Sherilyn Mortensen for Sew Kind of Wonderful. The technique uses the QR Mini Curve ruler. I used the colors of the rainbow blending from one into the next around the square.. The background was pieced with squares of grey and white prints. It's a cheery accent above our fireplace in our home especially in the Spring and Summer months.

#1004 Grey Feathered Star Wall Hanging

Size: 27" x 27"

$ 150.00

This intricate pieced star design is designed by Edyta Sitar. I used batik fabrics in shades of grey, blue and white for the Star on a light grey background. I added a small red border to frame the center and used along with the darker grey outer border it has the feel of a matted picture. I love the resulting Southwest aesthetic of this quilt. I used straight-line quilting on diagonals.
